

Leica Camera Ltd

PASSPORT SCHEME

Terms & Conditions

The Leica Passport is issued upon first purchase of one of the following Leica Sport Optics products, supplied through Leica Camera UK or an authorised Leica Camera Ltd UK Dealer: Trinovid, Ultravid, Noctivid, Monovid, Televid ranges, Geovid Rangefinders and Riflescopes

Please note: for the Leica Passport to be fully validated, the owner is required to register their product to the Leica Club after purchase at the following address: store.leica-camera.com/uk/en/passport-registration-form

If, during the period of cover, any part of the equipment ceases to function, or functions incorrectly, from whatever cause (including accidental damage), it will be repaired by Leica Camera Ltd free of charge. Alternatively, Leica Camera Ltd may, at its discretion, offer a replacement free of charge. In the case of special or limited-edition items which cannot be replaced, Leica Camera Ltd will endeavour to carry out repairs.

Exclusions

The following is not covered by Passport: loss, theft, deliberate damage, cosmetic damage, water damage to Trinovid compact binoculars, damage resulting from non-Leica Camera Ltd servicing or repair, loss or damage to accessories (straps, cases etc.).

Claims under this Passport will only be dealt with by Leica Camera Ltd. Items requiring attention should be returned via an authorised Leica Camera Ltd UK Dealer, accompanied by a description of what function requires attention and the original sales receipt.

Issue of the Leica Passport does not affect your rights. International Leica Guarantee cards, issued by Leica Camera AG, Wetzlar, Germany, will continue to be included with all observation equipment. You are advised to keep the International Leica Guarantee card and produce it to an official Leica Store if your equipment requires attention while travelling abroad.
